Business Waste Service Agreement Form - North

Terms and Conditions of Agreement

As a representative of the registered business named in this agreement, I wish to apply for Inner West Council's Business Waste Collection Service and accept the following conditions:

1. All Council-supplied bins remain the property of Council.
2. Each bin being placed out for emptying weighs under 70kg. Overweight or overflowing bins will not be emptied. All waste must be fully contained. Material beside the bin will not be collected. The business will be responsible for removing excess waste.
3. Bins must be stored and returned to the property as soon as possible after collection.
4. If bins are damaged due to overfilling, or your bin is stolen a replacement bin fee will be charged.
5. Bin lids must be closed when placed out for collection.
6. No liquid, hazardous, chemical, clinical waste, building or demolition waste will be accepted. The business will be responsible for removing and disposing of all unacceptable material in a legal manner.
7. The business is responsible for cleaning all the bins regularly.
8. To cancel or change the waste collection service Council must be notified in writing. A two-week notification period is required for any changes in service.
9. Payment is required within 30 days from the date on the invoice.
10. Business waste collection service will be terminated, and Council bins will be removed if payment is not received by Council within 60 days from the date of the invoice.
11. Council's Business Waste Service fees are updated each financial year and listed in Council's Fees and Charges.
