

Terms and Conditions for entering the Children's Book Week 2023 Competition

1. The artwork or story submitted must relate to the theme 'Read, Grow, Inspire'.
2. Any child from grades K to 2 can enter the Drawing Competition and any child from grades 3 to 6 can enter the Writing Competition.
3. There is no word limit for the writing competition. If entrants need extra writing space, additional sheets of paper can be attached to original entry form. Writing entrants may also include an illustration that supports their story. Drawing entrants may include writing that supports their drawing.
4. Entries must be received on or before Wednesday 9 August 2023. Winners will be notified by Friday 18 August 2023. Only winners will be notified.
5. Drawings and stories must have been produced by the entrant.
6. Entries will be judged by the competition organisers. Amongst a set of criteria, judges will be looking for the most interesting, entertaining, or thought-provoking entries. Judge's decision is final.
7. Only winning entries can be returned.
8. Additional information is needed when entering a story or drawing:
 - (a) Full Name
 - (b) Contact Details
 - (c) School
9. By entering the competition, the entrant agrees that their drawing or story is original and does not infringe any third-party intellectual property right(s).
10. Entrants grant Inner West Council a free, worldwide, non-exclusive, irrevocable license for the use of their story or drawing for Council purposes.
