Marietta Gallery

This gallery is named after Marietta Ballini who during her life worked tirelessly to support Italian immigrants and their families. In 1979 Marietta formed the group Pensioner's and Friend's Group of Leichhardt (Gruppo Pensionati Italiani e Amici di Leichhardt), to assist elderly Italians, and was the President up until her death.

In 1981, Marietta and Adelina Dicoio, founded the Ethnic Craft Group of Leichhardt, which to this day still brings people together to create and learn from each other. Marietta's tireless work was recognised in 1989 when she was awarded the Medal of the Order of Australia, and also awarded the Premier's Award.

It seems that the majority of Marietta's adult life was spent helping people, and creating ways to reduce isolation for elderly people in particular. In 1991 The National Association for Italian Women in Sydney presented Marietta with an award called "Strength and Courage" to acknowledge the extensive work she has contributed to community building despite her own constant pain and illness. At age 24 Marietta was diagnosed with cancer of the spine and spent the rest of her life in a wheelchair.
