| The house was erected by Walter Greenfield, builder, in 1907. It occupies two allotments. Greenfield called the residence "Arun". The stable building facing the rear land was possibly also used by Greenfield as a storage shed, for he had a large business. Walter Greenfield was still in occupation in 1933. |                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                             |  |  |
