ASHFIELD HERITAGE STUDY

1991-1992

ASHFIELD HENITAGE S	זעטונ	1991-1992
NAME Group of Two Hou	ses	REFERENCE NO. 254
OTHER NAMES No. 154: AIRDALE	E; No. 156: KYAMBA	REAL PROPERTY DESCRIPTION
LOCALITY / SUBURB Summer Hill	POSTCODE 2130	ZONING
STREET ADDRESS 154 and 156 Smith	n Street.	2(a)
MAP	REFERENCE	OWNER
PHYSICIAL CHARACTERISTICS/HISTORIC	AL NOTES - SEE OVER	(154) Williams TA; Williams C. (156) Rowe J;
CATEGORY	SUB CATEGORY	O'Donnell LM.
	Associative Representative Representative Associative Representative Representative Associative Representative Representative Representative Representative Representative Representative In Associative Representative	BOUNDARY / IDENTIFICATION The property boundaries SITE CONDITION Intact

PHOTOGRAPHS		DATE OF SURVEY
BandW ROLL 91-052-13	NEG NO. 30a	1/6/92
COLOUR SLIDES ROLL	FRAME NO.	SURVEYOR
		RI/CHP
STUDY TEAM: Richard Mackay, Robert Irving, Chris Pratten, Jill Sheppard, Stephen Harris

ASHFIELD HERITAGE STUDY HERITAGE LISTINGS 1991-1992
PERIOD PEEEPENOT NO
Hegister of the National Estate (AHC) - Registered Pre - 1800 254
Register of the National Estate (AHC) - Interim 1800 - 1825 DATE OF CONSTRUCTION:
Register of National Trust (NSW) 1883, with later modific	ations
Within National Trust Conservation Area 1851 - 1875
Register of Significant Twentieth Century Architecture (RAIA) 1876 - 1900 X 1800 of the city
Department of Public Works Heritage and Conservation Register 1901 - 1925 X 1889 alterations: Conrad and Bell, Sydne	W.
1926 - 1950	· .
1951 - 1975
Post - 1975
Heritage Council Register - Nomination HISTORICAL THEMES:
NSW Government Department Heritage Register (S170 Heritage Act) State Themes:
Institution of Engineers (NSW) Heritage Register Regional Environmental Plan Heritage Schedule A place to live. Emergence of building styles.
Regional Environmental Plan Heritage Schedule Local Environmental Plan Heritage Schedule Local Environmental Plan Heritage Schedule Subdivision and a sub
Other Subdivision and consolidation.
HISTORICAL NOTES
These houses occupy land which was originally part of the Canterbury Estate. No. 154, at the Moonbie Street corner, was purchas	ed by Samuel Harris, crieffinst and druggist, in the early 1880s and by 1883 the house had been exceed the 1994 the
Dr David Collingwood, who set up a medical centre there. Sands' Directories list as many as four doctors in occupation in the early	1900s.
The house on no. 156 was erected for John McDonald, also by 1883. McDonald was still in residence in 1913, the house being na "Kyamba".	ned
· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
INFORMATION SOURCES:
Written: Land Title records. Sands' Directories. Rate Books. Research by N. Peek. Sydney Morning Herald, 3 August, 1889. Oral:
Written: Land Title records. Sands' Directories. Rate Books. Research by N. Peek. Sydney Morning Herald, 3 August, 1889.
Written: Land Title records. Sands' Directories. Rate Books. Research by N. Peek. Sydney Morning Herald, 3 August, 1889. Oral: Graphic:
Written: Land Title records. Sands' Directories. Rate Books. Research by N. Peek. Sydney Morning Herald, 3 August, 1889. Oral: Graphic: PHYSICAL CHARACTERISTICS:
Written: Land Title records. Sands' Directories. Rate Books. Research by N. Peek. Sydney Morning Herald, 3 August, 1889. Oral: Graphic: PHYSICAL CHARACTERISTICS: Materials: Brick/stucco walls. Terra cotta and concrete tile roofs. Timber joinery and verandah decoration.
Written: Land Title records. Sands' Directories. Rate Books. Research by N. Peek. Sydney Morning Herald, 3 August, 1889. Oral: Graphic: PHYSICAL CHARACTERISTICS: Materials: Brick/stucco walls. Terra cotta and concrete tile roofs. Timber joinery and verandah decoration. Exterior: Two and three storey houses having some identical features and some distinctive differences.
Written: Land Title records. Sands' Directories. Rate Books. Research by N. Peek. Sydney Morning Herald, 3 August, 1889. Oral: Graphic: PHYSICAL CHARACTERISTICS: Materials: Brick/stucco walls. Terra cotta and concrete tile roofs. Timber joinery and verandah decoration. Exterior: Two and three storey houses having some identical features and some distinctive differences.
Written: Land Title records. Sands' Directories. Rate Books. Research by N. Peek. Sydney Morning Herald, 3 August, 1889. Oral: Graphic: PHYSICAL CHARACTERISTICS: Materials: Brick/stucco walls. Terra cotta and concrete tile roofs. Timber joinery and verandah decoration. Exterior: Two and three storey houses having some identical features and some distinctive differences. Not inspected. Styles: Federation Arts-&-Crafts/Free Classical.
Written: Land Title records. Sands' Directories. Rate Books. Research by N. Peek. Sydney Morning Herald, 3 August, 1889. Oral: Graphic: PHYSICAL CHARACTERISTICS: Materials: Brick/stucco walls. Terra cotta and concrete tile roofs. Timber joinery and verandah decoration. Exterior: Two and three storey houses having some identical features and some distinctive differences. Interior: Not inspected. Styles: Federation Arts-&-Crafts/Free Classical.
Written: Land Title records. Sands' Directories. Rate Books. Research by N. Peek. Sydney Morning Herald, 3 August, 1889. Oral: Graphic: PHYSICAL CHARACTERISTICS: Materials: Brick/stucco walls. Terra cotta and concrete tile roofs. Timber joinery and verandah decoration. Exterior: Two and three storey houses having some identical features and some distinctive differences. Interior: Not inspected. Styles: Federation Arts-&-Crafts/Free Classical. DESCRIPTION: Each of these two houses has a street facing gable incorporating in its roof space a third storey, lit by a high gable window. Across to front is a two storey timber vergodeb with some Art New York Parks and Some distinctive differences.	le
Written: Land Title records. Sands' Directories. Rate Books. Research by N. Peek. Sydney Morning Herald, 3 August, 1889. Oral: Graphic: PHYSICAL CHARACTERISTICS: Materials: Brick/stucco walls. Terra cotta and concrete tile roofs. Timber joinery and verandah decoration. Exterior: Two and three storey houses having some identical features and some distinctive differences. Interior: Not inspected. Styles: Federation Arts-&-Crafts/Free Classical. DESCRIPTION: Each of these two houses has a street facing gable incorporating in its roof space a third storey, lit by a high gable window. Across the gable form, with a freelyout provide with some Art Nouveau decoration and a low pitched hip skillion roof. In the case of No. 156 the	0
Written: Land Title records. Sands' Directories. Rate Books. Research by N. Peek. Sydney Morning Herald, 3 August, 1889. Oral: Graphic: PHYSICAL CHARACTERISTICS: Materials: Brick/stucco walls. Terra cotta and concrete tile roofs. Timber joinery and verandah decoration. Exterior: Two and three storey houses having some identical features and some distinctive differences. Interior: Not inspected. Styles: Federation Arts-&-Crafts/Free Classical. DESCRIPTION: Each of these two houses has a street facing gable incorporating in its roof space a third storey, lit by a high gable window. Across to gable form, with a fretwork barge, comprises virtually the whole of the house facade. A rear extension is two storeys high. No. 156, the wider allotment at the Moonbie Street corner, has a gabled element almost identical to that of No. 156. However, to its east and for Moonbie Street, there is a substantial countries.	e on a
Written: Land Title records. Sands' Directories. Rate Books. Research by N. Peek. Sydney Morning Herald, 3 August, 1889. Oral: Graphic: PHYSICAL CHARACTERISTICS: Materials: Brick/stucco walls. Terra cotta and concrete tile roofs. Timber joinery and verandah decoration. Exterior: Two and three storey houses having some identical features and some distinctive differences. Not inspected. Styles: Federation Arts-&-Crafts/Free Classical. DESCRIPTION: Each of these two houses has a street facing gable incorporating in its roof space a third storey, lit by a high gable window. Across t front is a two storey timber verandah with some Art Nouveau decoration and a low pitched hip skillion roof. In the case of No. 156, the wider allotment at the Moonbie Street corner, has a gabled element almost identical to that of No. 156. However, to its east, and form gabled blocks just described. The abutting building which, to judge by its architectural treatment, was built earlier than both of the	0 00 a
Written: Land Title records. Sands' Directories. Rate Books. Research by N. Peek. Sydney Morning Herald, 3 August, 1889. Oral: Graphic: PHYSICAL CHARACTERISTICS: Materials: Brick/stucco walls. Terra cotta and concrete tile roofs. Timber joinery and verandah decoration. Exterior: Two and three storey houses having some identical features and some distinctive differences. Interior: Not inspected. Styles: Federation Arts-&-Crafts/Free Classical. DESCRIPTION: Each of these two houses has a street facing gable incorporating in its roof space a third storey, lit by a high gable window. Across to gable form, with a fretwork barge, comprises virtually the whole of the house facade. A rear extension is two storeys high. No. 154, wider allotment at the Moonbie Street corner, has a gabled element almost identical to that of No. 156. However, to its east, and from gabled blocks just described. The abutting building which, to judge by its architectural treatment, was built earlier than both of the classically adorned, the main element being a prominent arched entrance doorway with prominent keystone and entableture.	e on a ting
Written: Land Title records. Sands' Directories. Rate Books. Research by N. Peek. Sydney Morning Herald, 3 August, 1889. Oral: Graphic: PHYSICAL CHARACTERISTICS: Materials: Brick/stucco walls. Terra cotta and concrete tile roofs. Timber joinery and verandah decoration. Exterior: Two and three storey houses having some identical features and some distinctive differences. Interior: Not inspected. Styles: Federation Arts-&-Crafts/Free Classical. DESCRIPTION: Each of these two houses has a street facing gable incorporating in its roof space a third storey, lit by a high gable window. Across to gable form, with a fretwork barge, comprises virtually the whole of the house facade. A rear extension is two storeys high. No. 154, wider allotment at the Moonbie Street corner, has a gabled element almost identical to that of No. 156. However, to its east, and from gabled blocks just described. The abutting building which, to judge by its architectural treatment, was built earlier than both of the classically adorned, the main element being a prominent arched entrance doorway with prominent keystone and entableture.	e on a ting
Written: Land Title records. Sands' Directories. Rate Books. Research by N. Peek. Sydney Morning Herald, 3 August, 1889. Oral: Graphic: PHYSICAL CHARACTERISTICS: Materials: Brick/stucco walls. Terra cotta and concrete tile roofs. Timber joinery and verandah decoration. Exterior: Two and three storey houses having some identical features and some distinctive differences. Interior: Not inspected. Styles: Federation Arts-&-Crafts/Free Classical. DESCRIPTION: Each of these two houses has a street facing gable incorporating in its roof space a third storey, lit by a high gable window. Across t front is a two storey timber verandah with some Art Nouveau decoration and a low pitched hip skillion roof. In the case of No. 156, the wider allotment at the Moonbie Street corner, has a gabled element almost identical to that of No. 156. However, to its east, and from gabled blocks just described. The abutting gable has a central chimney, flanked by windows. Facing Moonbie Street the building is classically adorned the main element being a pasie of the properties of the position of the properties of the pasie and properties of the pasie a	e on a ting
Written: Land Title records. Sands' Directories. Rate Books. Research by N. Peek. Sydney Morning Herald, 3 August, 1889. Oral: Graphic: PHYSICAL CHARACTERISTICS: Materials: Brick/stucco walls. Terra cotta and concrete tile roofs. Timber joinery and verandah decoration. Exterior: Two and three storey houses having some identical features and some distinctive differences. Interior: Not inspected. Styles: Federation Arts-&-Crafts/Free Classical. DESCRIPTION: Each of these two houses has a street facing gable incorporating in its roof space a third storey, lit by a high gable window. Across to gable form, with a fretwork barge, comprises virtually the whole of the house facade. A rear extension is two storeys high. No. 154, wider allotment at the Moonbie Street corner, has a gabled element almost identical to that of No. 156. However, to its east, and from Moonbie Street, there is a substantial abutting building which, to judge by its architectural treatment, was built earlier than both of the gabled blocks just described. The abutting gable has a central chimney, flanked by windows. Facing Moonbie Street the building is classically adorned, the main element being a prominent arched entrance doorway with prominent keystone and entablature incorporating a string course and pediment with an acroterion. There is a side bay, facetited and with pedimented windows. A further wing extends along Moonbie Street. The fence incorporates hedging. Gardens have many difference trees.	e on a ting
Written: Land Title records. Sands' Directories. Rate Books. Research by N. Peek. Sydney Morning Herald, 3 August, 1889. Oral: Graphic: PHYSICAL CHARACTERISTICS: Materials: Brick/stucco walls. Terra cotta and concrete tile roofs. Timber joinery and verandah decoration. Two and three storey houses having some identical features and some distinctive differences. Not inspected. Styles: Federation Arts-&-Crafts/Free Classical. DESCRIPTION: Each of these two houses has a street facing gable incorporating in its roof space a third storey, lit by a high gable window. Across t gable form, with a fretwork barge, comprises virtually the whole of the house facade. A rear extension is two storeys high. No. 156, the wider allotment at the Moonbie Street corner, has a gabled element almost identical to that of No. 156. However, to its east, and from gabled blocks just described. The abutting gable has a central chimney, flanked by windows. Facing Moonbie Street the main element being a prominent arched entrance doorway with prominent keystone and entablature incorporating a string course and pediment with an acroterion. There is a side bay, facetted and with pedimented windows. A further wing extends along Moonbie Street. The fence incorporates hedging. Gardens have many difference trees.	e on a ting
Written: Land Title records. Sands' Directories. Rate Books. Research by N. Peek. Sydney Morning Herald, 3 August, 1889. Oral: Graphic: PHYSICAL CHARACTERISTICS: Materials: Brick/stucco walls. Terra cotta and concrete tile roofs. Timber joinery and verandah decoration. Exterior: Two and three storey houses having some identical features and some distinctive differences. Interior: Not inspected. Styles: Federation Arts-&-Crafts/Free Classical. DESCRIPTION: Each of these two houses has a street facing gable incorporating in its roof space a third storey, lit by a high gable window. Across t gable form, with a fretwork barge, comprises virtually the whole of the house facade. A rear extension is two storeys high. No. 154, wider allotment at the Moonble Street corner, has a gabled element almost identical to that of No. 156. However, to its east, and fror gabled blocks just described. The abutting gable has a central chimney, flanked by windows. Facing Moonble Street the building is classically adorned, the main element being a prominent arched entrance doorway with prominent keystone and entablature wing extends along Moonble Street. The fence incorporates hedging. Gardens have many difference trees. MODIFICATION: No. 154 has no chimneys.	e on a ting