Dreaming with eyes open

Dream with your eyes open and write a short story about your wildest daydream.

I looked out the classroom window not paying attention to the lesson and was surprised, I was floating above Earth on a soft and fuzzy cloud! I picked myself up and stared into the distance to see a weirdly shaped cloud almost resembling a castle. I was incredibly curious so I decided to set off on a journey to the castle shaped cloud. As I tried to figure out a way to get to the castle I had discovered that I had a heightened jumping ability. In seconds I was jumping from cloud to cloud eventually ending up at the doorstep of Cloudy Castle.

As I take my first step into the castle I am amazed by the fanciness of it, there are nice paintings, vases and all types of elegant things. I walked up the spiral stairs and was greeted by two large wooden doors which with out notice flung open into an empty room. As I walk into the empty room the two big wooden doors shut behind me and they would not budge. An enormous cloud cyclops fell out of the roof and started swinging his giant battle axe at me.

Out of the corner of my eye I spotted a very small hole in the corner of the room which was inconveniently behind the cloud cyclops. I didn't have much time to think as an axe was constantly being swung at me, and all I could do was dodge so I decided to make a run for it and slide through the cyclops' legs and dive into the hole. I was greeted to an unpleasant surprise as the hole led to me falling back down to Earth whilst I was falling. I could hear someone calling my name Michael... Michael MICHAEL it was my teacher trying to get my attention, it was my turn to answer to the question on the board, I had no idea!!
