Dreaming with eyes open

Dream with your eyes open and write a short story about your wildest daydream.

You are in a classroom getting bored and start to dream with your eyes open. You're now in a deep forest. You see more than 2000 trees and can hear the beautiful kookaburras, cockatoos and the bark shaking by the furry kangaroos.

You explore the forest a bit and you find a mysterious cave with tropical vines. When you have a close look and touch the tropical vines, the vines grab onto your legs and drag you into the cave and...
"2+9="! Eyes in surprise.
