Dreaming with eyes open-myla gillard

This is a story about me dreaming with eyes open; Once upon a time, I was seeing cool things flying in the air, I was walking on a beautiful beach, and suddenly I saw a huge colourful creatures floating in the blue sky, there were pink whales, rainbow sharks, purple octopuses, deep red dolphins, and the list goes on and on and on... it was the coolest thing I have even dreamed of in my entire life, I am only 8 years old but this was one of the best dreams!

Suddenly without any doubt I had wings! I was flying high and low! and I began to realise that I had powers to go anywhere! So, I went to New Zealand... what a cool place, I was flying over very high mountains, I could see everything from there, it was so magical! I saw hundreds of multicolour unicorns on the land running with tigers, it was so wonderful to see these beautiful animals! but I was hungry and started to smell the chocolate in the air, I was flying over Charlie's chocolate factory, I decided to stop over there and ate lots of chocolates and candy! it was so so yummy!! Then I could hear my mum calling me and I realized I was dreaming.
