

SNITCHES WITH STITCHES AND CRAZY THINGS
BY ANA K BOOK WEEK 2022

As my eyes closed, my teacher's voice droned.
I started to daydream of monsters and creatures,
that have never been seen before.
I started to see more and more.
I saw dragons and witches and snitches getting stitches.
And it all came to life
With the fire burning ever so strong
Believe it or not, I saw a pig singing a song.
Then I tried to go back to the current world
but I couldn't wake up I screamed, was I going to be here forever?
Me and the dancing flowers didn't want to stay together.
I pinched myself, really hard
then the limes laughed while playing cards.
The dancing hat said if I want to go back,
I have to make a friend with a dragon and a cat.
And the hat disappeared into the night,
luckily he did otherwise we were going to have a fight.
I thought what type of quest is that?
How am I going to make friends with a dragon and a cat?
Then I exclaimed no time for chat,
let's go and find a dragon and a cat!
I asked a fish, 'have you seen a cat?'
He replied 'yes I have, but I made her into a mat.'
I asked a witch and she gave me her cat,
this time it wasn't a mat.
I needed a dragon, I saw some wings,
I hoped I had found him.
Indeed I had, it was the most magical thing.
The hat appeared and said I could go home and I could take back the dragon and cat so I wouldn't be alone.
Then I woke up, my teacher was still talking.
I was happy to be back from my wildest daydream.
