Dreaming with eyes open

Dream with your eyes open and write a short story about your wildest daydream.

mum woke me up with a suitcase and told me we were going on a holiday to Kings clee. I rushed out of bed and stuffed clothes in my suitcase while dad packed the car. we were all still waking up by the time we all got dressed and got breakfast. I got rosies stuff and gave her to our neighbors for them to take care of her while we were gone. we got in the car and drove to the airport. we got there early so we checked in and got some snacks at the gift shop. we boarded the plane and got in our seats. we took off and got there after 2 hours. we got our car and went to the hotel. we checked in and looked around. we were started with our room. Oli and i got our swimmers on and headed down to the pool. the pool had sand at the bottom so it felt beachy like. we then got dressed and went to see my uncle. steven and his dogs. we had lunch then headed back. we went to sleep that night and thought about the great day. ... EVA!! huh yes? were you even listening to me? oh i must have been dreaming again. continue Emilie
