<sup>2</sup> An 'actual' conflict of interests is where there is a direct conflict between a member's duties and responsibilities and their private interests or other duties.

<sup>2</sup> A 'potential' conflict of interests is where a panel member has a private interest or other duty that could conflict with their duties as a panel member in the future.

A 'reasonably perceived' conflict of interests is where a person could reasonably perceive that a panel member's private interests or other duties are likely to improperly influence the performance of their duties as a panel member, whether or not this is in fact the case.

Declaration of Interest

MEETING DATE	18 December 2023
Agenda Item/Panel	Item 2 (perceived conflict)
reference number	Item 3 (likely actual conflict) – two separate conflicts of interest

n relation to this matter, I declare that I have:
no known conflict of interest □
an actual $^1$ $\square$ , potential $^2$ $\square$ or reasonably perceived $^3$ $\boxtimes$ conflict of interest as detailed below:
Non-pecuniary: 20 Walker Avenue, Haberfield (Item 2)
I am the planner and heritage consultant for a DA at 146 Bland Street, which is within very close proximity to the subject site.
