

Writing competition

Reading is magic and can transport you to amazing and curious places.

Write a short story about a wonderful and magical place.

Mary an 8th grader loved reading. She was on her way home from the shop and had lunch. Suddenly it started raining. lucky she brought an umbrella but then she closed her eyes and imagined she was in a magical place then she opened her eyes BOOM! She saw a book shop and ran inside. Just as she ran inside flowers bloomed. She saw her favorite book and said "Ohh i like this book i might read it for a little bit" but 1 hour later she was still in there. She realized she ran home very quickly and she had dinner and went to bed.