Reading is magic and can transport you to amazing and curious places.

Write a short story about a wonderful and magical place.

once there lived a farmer he had three sons the third was the youngest his name was Lionel on the other hand his other brothers were very lazy they never ever did work they forced Lionel to do all their work they were very lazy indeed the farmer asked his youngest son to go and get some bread and wine in the forest. So he went in the forest and heard a voice say help please help. There was a tree he said please help me cut the spiky bits off. Lionel said okay after he was done he met an oven he was cracking he said please help me cover my cracks with cement. After he walked and walked until he saw a castle a castle he knocked on the door then the door magically opened and inside that castle was 10 fairies the fairies said who are you Lionel said I traveled for 2 days so I was wondering if you could let me stay here for a while the fairies agreed and said do not go to the 7th door he did what they said and the fairies granted him magical powers.
