

The dino nugget mission to rescue their friends

There were 5 dino nuggets; they were all close friends and they would go everywhere with each other. But one day, one of the dino nuggets was gone. The four dino nuggets were trying to look for him; they searched everywhere, except for the VOLCANO, the most dangerous area in the whole entire world.

The friends had to do something to rescue the friend who got lost so they went to explore the VOLCANO. Four of the dino nuggets were ready with gear. It was so hard to climb that 1 of the dino nuggets almost got cooked but he didn't.

They finally made it up the 2nd part of the volcano. They had to fight an angry dino nugget to get up the 3rd floor so two of them charged at the angry dino nugget. But the angry dino nugget blocked their attack. The other two dino nuggets who didn't charge were actually the smartest ones, so they both stayed back and got the ketchup gun. They used it to hit the angry dino nugget. The angry dino nugget got covered by the ketchup and was stuck.

They climbed to the 3rd floor and luckily there was nothing to fight so they all went exploring. Luckily they brought flashlights because it was pretty dark. So they all split up by 2s. 20 minutes later they didn't find their friend so they went up to the next floor.

They went to floor 4 and they saw an evil witch chicken nugget. They were gonna fight her. The two smart chicken nuggets tried using the ketchup gun again but it didn't work, so they used a barbecue sauce mini gun to defeat her. They looked around the area for their friend but they still couldn't find him.

So they went to the 5th floor to explore. It was their last chance or their friend will be doomed forever. They saw a chicken wing that was twice their size so they all attacked it. One of the smart chicken nuggets got attacked and got hurt. They got ready for a big attack on the big chicken wing. The weakness was salt and pepper so they used a salt and pepper laser gun.

They defeated him and found their friend. They freed him and they lived a happy life all together.
