

The tower

There was a girl named Lily. She was having a great life with her best friend, Jessica. She would play with Jessica every single day. One day after school, they decided to climb a tower. Once Jessica climbed to the top, the stairs magically disappeared. They were scared because Jessica was stuck in the tower with nothing. Lily tried to go inside the tower but the door seemed to be locked.

A few moments later, the tower started to speak. "I can only set your friend free ONLY IF you solve my riddles". At first, they were confused about what riddles they were going to solve. Then, a GIANT television appeared in front of them. The television started to show words. It read "I have no wings, but I can fly. I cry, but I have no eyes. What am I? "A cloud!" The girls shouted. Another riddle appeared. "I need food, but if I touch water, I die". What am I? "A fire!" They shouted.

"Well done" said the tower "please let go of my friend now" said Lily. "Alright alright a deal's a deal. The door unlocked and the stairs reappeared. Jessica ran as fast as she could down the stairs. As soon as the door unlocked, Lily hugged Jessica as tight as she could but Jessica didn't hug her back. She found it very weird and asked her why she didn't hug her back. Jessica replied "I don't know you!" shouted Jessica. Lily asked the tower, "WHAT HAVE YOU DONE?!" the tower didn't reply.

It seems that the tower decided to stay quiet. Little did they know, the tower didn't do anything. Jessica slipped down the stairs and lost her memory. From that day, Lily blamed the tower for Jessica's injury. A few days later, Lily decided to visit the same exact tower and at the same exact time after school.

Lily begged and begged for the tower to give back Jessica's memory back but the tower just ....sat there. Lily gave up on trying to get the tower to give Jessica's memories back. She decided to be friends with Jessica and give her new memories as her friend. She made more memories with her to have more trust to become best friends.
