Waste Container Company Registration Form

ABOUT THIS FORM

Waste container companies must register with Inner West Council if they intend placing containers on Council's roads, footpaths and other public areas in the Local Government Area formerly known as Marrickville Council on behalf of their customers. Companies must provide a copy of their current public liability cover (at least $20 million) stating Inner West Council as an interested party. Approval is only valid for one (1) year.

All containers must comply with Inner West Council- Marrickville Policy No: ES.4 Placement of Waste Storage Containers in a Public Place - Local Approvals Policy. The sitting and placement of waste containers must comply with the Roads and Maritime Services' Guidelines for the Placement of Bulk and Skip Waste Containers. Failure to comply will result in immediate cancellation of this approval.

Permits are required for every container hire. The Hirer or Supplier can obtain the Permit Number by going online at www.marrickville.nsw.gov.au/skip, selecting Apply online for a skip bin permit then following the prompts. Alternatively, your clients can contact the Petersham Service Centre on 9392 5000.

No Council permit is required to place a container within private property boundaries.
