

BLOOMING ARTS - arts exhibition by people with ability

“Celebrating International Day of People with a Disability”

CALL FOR ENTRIES

Inner West Council is pleased to present Blooming Arts 2020.
This year's event is being managed by Roomies Arts – www.roomiesarts.org

The exhibition will be held at:
Chrissie Cotter Gallery at 31A Pidcock St Camperdown between
Thursday 26 November to Saturday 2 December, 11am to 4pm.

Artists are invited to submit registration of their art for an opportunity for people with a disability to showcase and celebrate their abilities in the art arena and to be acknowledged by their family, friends, peers and the general public.

Artworks can be offered for sale with no commission required, and there is the opportunity for one lucky exhibitor to win the Blooming Arts Mentoring Prize. There will also be a Judges Choice Award, a People's Choice Award and an Encouragement Award.

BLOOMING ARTS MENTORING PRIZE

A panel of judges will assess those artists that have registered their interest in applying for the chance to win the Mentoring Prize. The Blooming Arts Mentoring Prize offers one artist the opportunity to further develop and enhance their creative talents through a mentoring opportunity.

*Please note that the Mentoring Prize is only open to artists from the Inner West. Inner West is defined as the following local government areas:

Inner West Council (former Leichhardt, Marrickville, Ashfield.) Burwood, Canada Bay, and Strathfield.

GUIDELINES

- Works can be in any medium, by an individual or group.
- A limit of two works per artist is allowed, but it is up to the discretion of the exhibition curator to limit this number to one work if necessary, based on available hanging space, and the overall curation of the exhibition.

Paintings must be framed prior to delivery this includes attaching hooks D-rings available in hardware stores, art supply shops. (Second hand frames from op-shops can be an inexpensive option). We won't be able to hang them if you don't have the appropriate hooks and frames to hang them with.

All works submitted must be the artist's own original work.

- A completed registration form is required for each artwork submitted and each artwork must have the artist's name, address, contact number (plus carer if appropriate) and title of work securely attached to the back
