Write a short story about an amazing and unforgettable adventure.

Once upon a time there was a robber named Bobber. Bobber has stole a lot of things in the past without going to jail, but we're not talking about the past. We're talking about now! Bobbers next robbery is going to be stealing from the New York gold vaults. The very next evening he got one of his stolen planes and flew away to New York, when he got there he located a crane with a wrecking ball and a man hole. He got his shrink ray he shrank the crane opened the man hole cover and dove it in there he found the gold vaults then made the crane big again, and broke in he smashed the security cameras ran over the guards and disabled the lasers. Then he found it the gold bars he took as many as he could made a hole above him found his plane and flew back home. The End.
