An a mysterious encounter

In a small village there was a person very different from the others. Meet Timmy he is an adventures young person who is also a troublemaker. Everyone else in the village is boring and do not like adventures but all of it changed one one day. . . . While Timmy was causing mischief he encountered a strange looking animal that looked like a lizard with wings but one hundred times bigger. "What is that creature?" thought Timmy to himself. Although Timmy was brave he has never felt this feeling before. Timmy was so scared in this situation and he feels like a coward when he calls for help. Then the unthinkable happens the creature actually likes Timmy and from he ends up taming the dragon. Once Timmy entered the village people started to gossip "What did this boy bring to this village a creature that is just going to cause more destruction? This is just madness," said a person. more soon But as change flew by people started to like the dragon and Timmy and the dragon became famous and people started to respect them. After this Timmy made a promise to himself to never cause mischief again.
