In a town, called Woodchuck lived a little bird, called Spencer. Spencer was a dove, doves in Woodchuck were known as peace givers, and superheroes. A doves main job was to sing. Doves singing brought peace to Woodchuck. You would think the sound of a ~~do~~ doves singing would be beautifull, and it is. Well only if you're a proper dove. Un-proper doves are banned from Woodchuck because there singing does the exact opposite of a proper dove. So in Woodchuck the Queen dove gave birth to Spencer. Spencer just as succesfull as his Mother since he learnt to fly straight away. But little did Mother know, Spencer was NOT as succesfull as his Mother in every way. "Wonderfull!" ~~sa~~ squawked Mother as Spencer took off. "You'll be a great ~~dove~~ do-". Mother was interrupted by y off her royal servants. "It's time for the sing-song test!" squaked a panicked servant. Mother brought Spencer to the towns flying stadium. Crowds of birds of all types crowder around spencer. Mother put her bright white wings up and closed her eyes.

"Sing!" she squacked. The crowd waited... Then "squawki" squaked Spencer. The squack was so unpleasant a servant fainted & Mother had a heart attack. Before any servants could throw Spencer out of wood chuck, Mother squacked "No! Spencer has royal blood! Take him to the wise parrot and see if he can help" So they did. 1 hour later they were at dove mountain, ~~the~~ where the parrot rested. "What do you need?" asked
