Island Treasure Adventure

One sunny morning, Florence and her friend Cookie were walking along the beach when they found an old glass bottle on the sand. Inside the bottle was paper. Cookie opened the paper and saw a map with a big, red X in the middle.

"I think this is a treasure map," said Cookie. "Let's follow it and find out." The map led Cookie and Florence to a small boat with two life jackets inside. They climbed in, put on their life jackets and followed the directions on the map across the clear, blue ocean.

The directions on the map took them to an island. This island was filled with colourful flowers, tall palm trees with lots of birds sitting and whistling on the thick brown branches. The girls decided to explore the island. They found a hidden cave behind a waterfall.

Inside the cave was an old, wooden chest. Feeling a little bit scared and worried the girls decided to open it up. "This is so exciting," said Florence. "Do you think there is treasure inside?"

Once they opened it up, they couldn't believe what they saw. The chest was filled with puzzles, books, paint, stickers and glitter: lots of fun things. The girls were so excited and felt that they had found the best treasure ever. It was even better than gold or jewels.

The girls could not wait to get back home to play with their new treasure. Cookie and Florence carried their chest and sailed back home and could not wait for their next adventure!!!!
