"Bunbun to my office now!!" boomed the loud speaker in the Rabbitment.

Bunbun took her time going to the office of the mayor although it sounded urgent she made a few pit stops on the way, getting food and going to the bathroom. Two carrots and a few hot cross buns later, Bunbun arrived at the mayor's office to a screaming fit of not taking enough responsibility. The mayor eventually informed her of the terrible situation.

"I've lost the recipe for the legendary carrot cake that is meant to be for the main course of the great feast," exclaimed the Mayor.

"I need you to find it before sunrise tomorrow, it's most likely in the chest guarded by the frosted dragon," said the Mayor.

And then Bunbun was off in search of the recipe (and the frosted dragon).

Bunbun skipped to her bestie's house, Carry opened the door quicker than Bunbun ever could and they exchanged greetings. Bunbun told Carry about everything that happened in the morning and luckily enough ~~the~~ Carry knew a book that would tell them exactly where the dragon would be. The two friends ran over to the library across the milk lake and Carry pulled ^{out} a book called 'Carrot cake Diaries'.

"What is that?" Bunbun asked.
"The answer!" announced Carry as she showed Bunbun the exact location of the Frosted dragon written in the book.

Once Bunbun read it over and over again 10 times, Bunbun sprinted out of the library and to the Mt Everbun.

Bunbun and Carry hiked the mountain which only took like five minutes. At the tip top lay a pile of snow with a tail. Behind it ~~lay~~ sat a chest starting to get illuminated by the sun.
"The sun is rising we don't have long!" shouted Carry.

Suddenly a roar rang through Bunbun and Carry's ears. The dragon stood up and blew a huge puff of fire in their direction!

"G-day mate, you wanna go to a barby?" asked the frosted dragon in a heavy american accent.

"Oh, um, actually we want to open that chest," said Carry at the top of her lungs.

Another roar rang through their ears and they thought they were done for. But the frosted dragon just moved out of the way. Bunbun and Carry opened the chest and inside was... NOTHING!

"Ring, Ring, Ring!!!" sounded Bunbun's rabbit watch.

They answered and heard a familial voice on the other side.

"Hey, um, Bunbun, the recipe for the legendary carrot cake was under my pillow the whole time," whispered the Mayor.

"WHAT!" exclaimed Bunbun and Carry.

"But at least the great feast is saved," said the mayor.
